Will 2010 shape up to be a stunning year?

By the 28th January almost 10% of the year will have raced by...will you be well on the way to your best year ever?, or will you be continuing on with the busyness of Christmas 2009.

The New Year is like an imaginary line in the sand where you get the opportunity to start again. It's a time to stand still for a moment. It's a time to gather your thoughts. It's a time get clear, and it's a time to be making DECISIONS and CHOICES that will shape the year ahead.

The Past does not have to be a reflection of the Future, which is why Prosper and Bishop Toomey and Pfeifer have teamed up and created a special day dedicated to YOU. We have created a workshop dedicated to PLANNING for your Brighter Future, and Planning your Success with PASSION and PURPOSE.

“Harnessing the Energy of the NEW YEAR to Maximise your Business”

....and it starts with you. Your Business will only be as successful as you, so it's our intention to provide you with some simple tools, processes and strategies that will increase your chances of success personally, the success of your business, and the success of those around you.

Here's a sample of what you'll learn and be able take away and implement straight away.....

- A summary of what you should stop doing, yes there are aspects of your business that have been dragging you down, and eroding your profits.
- 10 Steps to Planning your Success and the Must Do's for 2010. We'll literally help you to decide what the theme of your year should be about, relative to your business. Whether it's about massive growth, systemisation, consolidation, diversification, succession / exit, or developing your culture.
- One Page plan that will be a living, breathing document that will help you to not only Plan for a great year, but will help you to stay on track and measure your progress. This will include your Vision, where you and your business are heading, Rocks or priorities of what is most important, Goals and Action Steps of when and how you will get there. This part alone will cover your investment for the day.

- Financial Budget and Cash-flow forecast. Mark Pfeifer of Bishop Toomey and Pfeifer will take you through the key economic drivers for your business and help with planning, strategy, and tactics from an accounting and financial perspective.
- Workbooks, templates, and tools all included
- Refreshments provided, including lunch

So that's just a wee sample of what you'll take away.....Simple, tangible tools, strategies and tactics that will set you up for success in 2010, and get you off to a great start whilst others are still thinking about it.
